

Lancaster Public Library Open Meeting Policy

In accordance with New York State's Open Meetings Law, members of the public are welcome to attend Lancaster Public Library Board of Trustees meetings. Library Board meetings are for the conduct of library business. New York State's Open Meetings Law confers upon the public the right to observe the performance of public officials and to attend and listen to the deliberations and decisions that go into the making of public policy. In addition, each regular meeting of the Lancaster Public Library Board of Trustees includes an agenda item for "Public Comment" during which comments from the public can be made.
