

LEADERSHIP OF THE BUFFALO & ERIE COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

Bridget Quinn-Carey was appointed Director of the Buffalo and Erie County Public Library System on January 24, 2008. She assumed her duties on March 3, 2008.

Ms. Quinn-Carey had been the Director of the Essex Library Association in Essex, Connecticut. She grew up in Bellport, New York, where her mother, a children's librarian, inspired her to pursue a career in librarianship. She received her Bachelor of Arts Degree from SUNY Binghamton and earned her Master of Library Science Degree from St. John's University. In 2003, she won The New York Times "Librarian Award."

The Buffalo & Erie County Public Library System Board of Trustees consists of 15 members who serve five year terms on a rotating schedule. The Trustees are appointed by the Erie County Executive, who appoints ten members (two each calendar year), and the Mayor of Buffalo, who appoints five members (1 each calendar year).
