

LANCASTER PUBLIC LIBRARY
MEETING ROOM RULES OF USE

1. Meeting rooms are available for use only during the Library's normal hours of operation.
2. Meetings must be conducted in such a way as to not disturb library operations. The applicant is responsible for managing orderly behavior of all attendees. Adult supervision is required for any group of minors. Applicants and program participants are expected to conform to the Library's Code of Conduct, copies of which are available upon request.
3. Smoking, including electronic cigarettes, and alcoholic beverages are not permitted. No cooking may be done nor served with the approval of library management.
4. Programs should be planned so that meeting space will be vacated 15 minutes before closing time.
5. Meeting rooms must be left in orderly, un-littered condition. Tables and chairs must be returned to the positions in which they were found.
6. No games of chance may be played.
7. The Library will provide no audio-visual equipment or operators.
8. The library will provide no storage space and assumes no responsibility for equipment or personal articles belonging to applicants or their guests. Library personnel will not move or rearrange heavy equipment.
9. The applicant accepts liability for either damage to library facilities or loss of library property.
10. All publicity is the responsibility of the applicant and must clearly identify the sponsoring organization. The location of the Library may be publicized, but the Library telephone number may not be placed on publicity, as the Library is not a source of information concerning the event. Neither the name nor the address of the Library may be used as the official address or headquarters of an organization. No deliveries are to be made unless the sponsor is present to accept them.
11. The application assumes the responsibility for participant accommodations (e.g. assistive listening devices, etc.) and specific articles of compliance as required by the Americans with Disabilities Act. The Library does not discriminate on the basis of disability in any of its programs and services, and organization using the Library's meetings rooms are required to provide reasonable accommodations for persons with disabilities (e.g. assistive listening devices, interpreters etc., when and if possible) as required by the Americans with Disabilities Act. The Library may be able to assist with some accommodations if requests are made at least five working days in advance of the meeting.
12. Library personnel must have free access to meeting rooms at all times. The Library retains the right to monitor all meetings conducted on the premises to ensure compliance with its regulations. Violation of any of the Library's rules shall be grounds for denial of future use of meeting space.
