Create your own book

Saturday,
February 23
10:30am

Do you enjoy creative writing or illustrating? Would you love to write or illustrate your own book? Come learn how to create easy, origami folded books to fill with your own creations. You will have the chance to experiment with language and art mediums to create your very own work of art. This will be a fun and open activity where your creativity rules.

Recommended for Ages 8-12. Registration required.
