Wordsmithery is dead easy. Guess the meaning of word. All 700 of our words are exactly the kind of words that you pretend to understand...when you don't. Words like egregious, phalanx and salubrious. Don't worry. You get three possible – and fun – definitions to choose from. First to ten points wins. Over to you. Game for 2 players or teams. On each turn a player draws a word, reads it to their opponent, and the opponent attempts to guess the meaning from three options. Each correct guess is two points, first one to ten wins.
