

The World Game Instructions

The World Game is based on comparing facts between countries, where the highest fact wins. However, to make the game interesting, there are some challenges that can be called. You are asked to guess the flag, show the location of a country on the map or name the capital city of a country.

Compete with facts

Choose a FACT! The highest number wins.

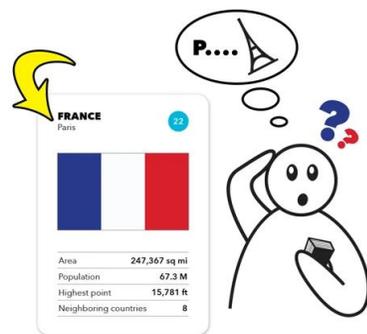

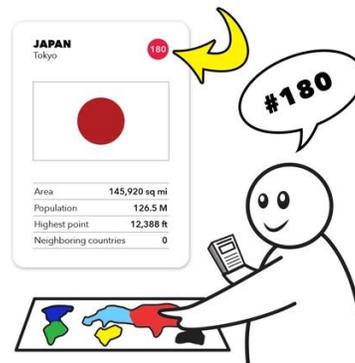

Flag challenge

Name the COUNTRY! Guess which country the flag belongs to.

Location challenge

Show the Country on the MAP! How many countries can you show on the map?

Capital City challenge

Name the Capital city of a country. Advanced challenge.
