

Further Resources

Online Resources:

Smithsonian Education: Letters from the Japanese American Internment

http://www.smithsonianeducation.org/educators/lesson_plans/japanese_internment/index.html

Japanese American National Museum

<https://www.janm.org/>

Japanese American Museum of San Jose- Manabu: Oral History Project

<https://www.jamsj.org/manabu>

Japanese American Relocation Digital Archive (JARDA)

<https://calisphere.org/exhibitions/t11/jarda/>

Non-Fiction:

Farewell to Manzanar: a true story of the Japanese American experience during and after the World War II internment by Jeanne Wakatsuki Houston, Clarion Books; Reprint edition (Gr. 7-9, 2017)

Infamy: the shocking story of the Japanese American internment in World War II by Richard Reeves (2015)

The invisible thread: an autobiography by Yoshiko Uchida (Gr. 5-7, 1991)

Fiction:

Displacement by Kiku Hughes (Gr. 7-9, 2020)

No-No Boy by John Okada (Reprint edition, 2014)

Drama:

American Pastime (NR, 105 mins, 2007)

Day of Independence (NR, 27 mins, 2003) Rental available at Vimeo

Snow Falling on Cedars (PG-13, 127 mins, 1994)

Documentary:

A Bitter Legacy (ages 7 and up, 76 mins, 2019) Rental available at Amazon Prime Video

Children of the Camps (ages 13 and up, 57 mins, 1999) Rental available at Amazon Prime Video

PBS | KSPS Documentaries, Injustice at Home (NR, 58 mins, 2019)

<https://www.pbs.org/video/injustice-at-home-h8mdt0/>