Reserved items will be available for pickup after December 14 at Lake Shore Public Library.

The final construction phase includes replacement of the storm sewer line from the building to Buffalo Street and redesign of the front entrance to provide greater accessibility. The wall between the old building and the new addition will be removed. A fireplace, new carpeting and shelving will be installed, as well as coffee shop equipment. Hamburg Public Library Director Jack Edson says he expects the library to reopen for business sometime in late January or early February.

The $2.6 million project is funded through the New York State Public Library Construction Grant Program of the state legislature, the Town of Hamburg, and many donors from the Library's extended community.
