Support "Gorillas on the Line .. Answer the Call" by donating an old cell phone for the Buffalo Zoo!

You can help save the Gorilla population by donating an old cell phone or other small electronic device to the Gorillas on the Line...Answer the Call program to benefit the Buffalo Zoo!

Bring your small electronics including old cell phones, devices and rechargers to these Buffalo & Erie County Public Libraries on Saturday, April 13 to donate to the Buffalo Zoo's—Gorillas On The Line...Answer the Call program.

Downtown Buffalo Central Library
Crane Branch Library
Leroy R. Coles, Jr. Coles Branch Library
Dudley Branch Library
East Clinton Branch Library
Isaías González Branch Library
Kenmore Branch Library
Kenilworth Branch Library
Lancaster Public Library
Frank E. Merriweather, Jr. Branch Library
North Park Branch Library
Orchard Park Public Library
Riverside Branch Library
Town of Collins Public Library

Taking small steps such as recycling old small electronics can have a larger impact on gorilla conservation. Coltan - which is a mineral compound used to manufacture small electronics, cell phones, tablets, and battery chargers - is hand-mined in the Democratic Republic of Congo, prime Eastern gorilla habitat. The deforestation and mining of coltan continues to displace these critically endangered species.

Help protect gorillas and their habitat. Gorillas on the Line is a reminder there are ways to take small daily actions to help save this amazing species.
