

MEDIA RELEASE

For Immediate Release: January 8, 2020

More information: Joy Testa Cinquino, 716-858-7182, testaj@buffalolib.org

42ND ANNUAL COMMUNITY CELEBRATION AT DOWNTOWN LIBRARY HONORING DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. TO BE HELD JANUARY 16

All are invited to celebrate the legacy of civil rights leader Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. at the Buffalo & Erie County Public Library's downtown Central Library located at 1 Lafayette Square, on Thursday, January 16 at 12 noon. This celebration is free & open to the public.

Local civil rights leader and poet Clifford Bell will be honored as he serves as the program's Master of Ceremonies for the tenth year. Drumming ensemble Daughters of Creative Sound and storyteller Sharon Holley will also be featured in the program. For more information, visit www.BuffaloLib.org or call 716-858-8900.

###