

Rules of Conduct

This policy is for application to those libraries within the City of Buffalo (Central Library, including the Washington Street Ramp and Ellicott Street walkways) and Buffalo Branch Libraries.

The Buffalo & Erie County Public Library (the “B&ECPL”) serves as a public center for information, education, and entertainment. Under applicable provisions of the New York State Education Law, including Article 5, Section 262 of such law, the Board of Trustees of the B&ECPL has adopted these Rules of Conduct to ensure a safe and welcoming environment for all library patrons.

Library patrons are expected to:

1. Respect other patrons and library staff.
2. Respect library property and property of others.
3. Obey the law and all library policies.
4. Comply with all lawful directives and requests from library staff.

Failure to comply with these Rules of Conduct or any other established library policy, rule or regulation, or violations of local, state or federal law, may result in immediate suspension of library privileges, including removal from library property, and/or, where necessary, civil liability and/or criminal prosecution. Persons who enter or refuse to leave library property after being removed may be charged with trespassing.

4. Carrying weapons of any kind;
