1.00 to 2.00 per week

1.00, but only for direct use. No diversion!

100.00

15 cents a week

2 dollars per week more

25 cents a week or at least an annual increase commensurate with other increases in the budget or some set COLA rate

3.00 per week

5.00

5.00 a week

50 cents a week more if it was taken from somewhere else

any amount above is suitable

any amount necessary

as much as possible

at least 1.00 per week

charge a membership. the people who use it should be the ones to pay. Do not raise my taxes

Depends

Dkdkd

do not own

don't know

don't own a home

fine the way it is

Fundraising

I do not own a home

I am not a home owner

I am not a homeowner

I am not a homeowner but I would pay $15 a month or less to keep the libraries.

I am open to discussion

I do already

I don't know offhand...

I don't own a home

I would like to devote some of the school tax money to the libraries, which benefits more people than the schools.

I've lived in 2 different states in the last 7 years. I've seen comparable cities do more with less.

It depends on how the additional revenue would be used.

Keep as is. Leave the same

less. people that use it should pay more

Low income -$1.00 per month

mobile ? $25 cents a week

more fund raising activities + volunteering

n/a

need more info to answer

no

no additional tax

No it's a free service

no more

No more. That actually makes me feel bad for people who have no interest in using the library but have to pay for it anyway.

No need to pay more taxes. Reduce amount paid to social services, benefits to county workers etc.

none

none given

not a home owner

not sure

or county can re-allocate priorities

politicians need less

question is too simplistic

Rent

same

Someone to explain how much the library needs - no guessing!

Tax northern suburbs

Transfer 25% of funds allocated to the Ralph Wilson Bills back into the library budget

United Way $40.00

Unknown (2)

unsure on limited income

We all pay enough taxes already!

we are outrageously taxed now. Higher income households need to pay their appropriate share.

what it takes to keep libraries open and politicians restricted access/ prevent ability to cut budget for knowledge for all

what the elected officials deem appropriate

Whatever is necessary

whatever is needed

whatever it takes

whatever it takes to keep it going would consider annual membership to specific library from $35 - $50 per year as I do for other organizations

Zero
