
We All Play: by Julie Flett

See how both animals and humans play!

Kapaemahu by Hinailemoana Wong-Kalu, Dean Hamer and Joe Wilson

Who are the Kapaemahu and how did they help save the people of Hawaii?

We are Water Protectors by Carole Lindstrom

In this Caldecott Medal winning picture book, we learn about the need to protect water and the efforts of Indigenous people to do so.

Fry Bread: a Native American Family Story by Kevin Noble Maillard

Fry bread is delicious and tastes even better when you know it connects so many people. Recipe included!

We Are Grateful by Traci Sorell

Go through the year with a Cherokee Nation family as they express thanks.

Gluskonba and the Maple Trees by Joseph, James, and Jesse Bruchac

What happens when you spend all day eating maple and not taking care of your home? Find out in this Abenaki legend.

Keepunumuk: Weeâchumun's Thanksgiving Story by Danielle Greendeer, Anthony Perry, and Alexis Buntin

A story of corn and the first Thanksgiving.

Contenders: Two Native Baseball Players, One World Series by Traci Sorell

Charles Bender and John Meyers are two native men about to face off in the most important game of their lives.

Wings of an Eagle: The Gold Medal Dreams of Billy Mills

Olympic Gold Medalist Billy Mills tells his story about becoming a champion.

The Barren Grounds by David A. Robertson

Two Indigenous foster children stumble upon a magical word, Askí. Once there, they team up with mythical creatures and join a quest!

A Snake Falls to Earth by Darcie Little Badger

Novel where two worlds bleed together, our world and a world of myths and monsters.

Learn More About Native American Culture with Books from the Library!

Authors We Love!

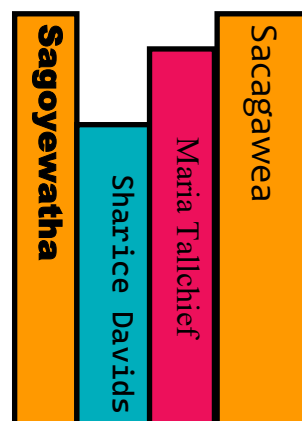

Carole Lindstrom

Julie Flett

David Alexander

Eric Gansworth (Local Author)

Darcie Little Badger

Scan to Sign-up for a Library Card.
Only Takes a Minute!

Parent/Legal Guardian permission required.

