Introductory Comments

On an annual basis from 1882 to 1892, there appears in the Buffalo City Directories a mortuary list of persons who, at the time of their death, were registered to the directory. This assembled compilation includes the total amount of information given in those directories. However, the overall list is not comprehensive; it does not cover all deaths of all persons in Buffalo for this time period.

Approximately one in every 3 1/4 to 3 1/2 persons (29 to 31% of the total population of Buffalo) was officially registered in the City Directories from 1882-1892.

This necrology of 21,248 names, begins with May 1, 1881, and extends to May 1, 1892. From the 1882 to the 1884 directory, with a few exceptions, deaths of persons under the age of 21 are omitted. Likewise, with a few exceptions, deaths of persons under the age of 16 are omitted from the 1885 through the 1892 directory.

Each excerpted entry includes the name, age, and date of death for the deceased. The 1882 City Directory, covering May 1, 1881, to May 1, 1882, is the only directory that does not at all include the age of the deceased.

Suggestions for Further Research

If the sought name is located in this mortuary list:

- (1) Search the Buffalo newspapers, such as the Buffalo Evening News, Buffalo Daily Courier, Buffalo Morning Express, Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, and Buffalo Times, for 1-7 days after the date of death in order to locate a death notice and/or an obituary for that person.
- (2) Search backward through the Buffalo City Directories, which begin in 1832, in order to determine when that person settled in Buffalo, what his or her occupation may have been, and where he or she established residence.
- (3) Search backward through the census records. The Buffalo and Erie County Public Library owns the general population schedules from 1790 to 1925 for the Western New York area and some other areas. The library also owns census indexes of names from 1790 to 1860. Several handouts describing the collection are available.

If the sought name is not located in this mortuary list:

(1) Contact the Buffalo City Hall Vital Statistics Office in order to find a death certificate for that person. The office contains death certificates for residents of Buffalo from 1886 to the present.

- (2) Try the Family Search Program on CD-ROM.
