Birth Announcements in Newspapers

Scan the Buffalo (Evening) News and the Courier-Express for a few weeks after the date of birth, and the Buffalo Daily Law Journal. No known index of local newspaper birth notices.

The Vital Records Office in Buffalo City Hall stopped releasing baby names to newspapers in 2006.

Adoptions: Unfortunately, birth notices are a poor source for adoption researchers, as the names of babies intended for adoption were not released to newspapers.

See our Adoptions & Orphanages handout for other adoption sources.

Marriage Announcements in Newspapers

There is no comprehensive index of local newspaper wedding announcements. Browse the Buffalo (Evening) News, Courier-Express, and the Buffalo Daily Law Journal for a few weeks around the date of the wedding. In some years, announcements were published every day, scattered throughout the paper. A brief notice of marriage license may be found in some years.

Social Security Databases
- Social Security Death Index [ALE, FS]
- Social Security Applications and Claims Index [ALE]

Both databases list birthdate and at least the month and year of death. The claims index also lists parents’ names and place of birth. The bulk range of birth dates is from 1870s-four years ago. The bulk range of death dates are 1965-four years ago. But both indexes go back earlier than stated. This is a national database, but every person who had a social security number was not necessarily included.
