3) Approval of Agenda
The agenda for today’s meeting was approved.

4) Public Comment
None at this time.

5) President’s Report
Mr. Voelkl noted the statue donated to the Amherst Public Library-Williamsville Branch will have an official unveiling on August 7 in the pocket park next to Williamsville Library. Ms. Butler-Smith noted there were delays in getting the statue mounted due to an insurance that needed to be in place. Moses Insurance Group found one vendor that would insure a single piece of art. Cost was $125.00 per year. The statue is on a concrete pedestal to protect it from snowblowers and people walking on it.
Ms. Butler-Smith noted that we own the statue not the Buffalo and Erie County Library system. Ms. Butler-Smith explained the asset report for Amherst Public Library that she files for NY State will have the statue reported as belonging to our libraries.

Mr. Voelkl invited all Board members to attend this dedication.
6) Trustees’ Report
A) Trustee, Michele Iannello - Ward regarding Judge John P. Lane

Ms. Iannello-Ward reported that Judge John P. Lane, deceased, may have been on a library board at one time and was an enthusiastic user of libraries. He left $200 to the Buffalo and Erie County Public Library System. Ms. Iannello-Ward suggested we honor Judge Lane with a plaque or name a room in his honor.

Ms. Butler-Smith explained we don’t own the building – the Town of Amherst owns it so they choose who gets naming rights.

Ms. Wolfgang asked to table the discussions at this time. Ms. Iannello-Ward seconded the motion.

7) Town of Amherst Council Members Report

Nothing at this time.

8) Director’s Report
A) Partnership programming with the Amherst Senior Center-Nickel City Reptiles on July 18.

Ms. Butler-Smith noted the partnership with the Senior Center to offer programs to a larger audience. The Senior Center’s community room holds larger groups than the Audubon Library can accommodate. Approximately 200 people have signed up to attend the event.

B) Town Supervisor’s Department Heads Meetings

Ms. Butler-Smith reported that the Department Head meetings have been productive and resolutions to issues have been forthcoming.

C) Donations-
Ms. Butler-Smith gave the Board members pictures of the items she is purchasing for Eggertsville Library and Audubon Library using money given in memory of two longtime employees that passed away in the past year. Mr. Voelkl questioned whether we should hold off on the Audubon purchase until we have an expansion plan. Board members felt we should proceed with the purchase.
Ms. Butler-Smith noted donations from the Meer Family and the Schorr family and how it would be spent according to the families' wishes.

D) Bullet Aid-
Amherst Library received $13000 from Assemblyman Ray Walter. Money will be used to fund Sunday hours at Clearfield Library in 2019 as well as extend Thursday hours of public service to 5 pm at Clearfield Library in 2019.

E) 2019 County Budget Request-
The 2019 budget will stay status quo with no major changes other than the additional hours mentioned above in Bullet Aid.

F) Library Construction Grant-Main Library @ Audubon-
Paperwork needed for the expansion must be filed by September 6, 2018. A meeting with a representative of the Amherst Board will be meeting with the Central Library Board with a presentation of the expansion plans. Ms. Butler-Smith reminded the Board that the Town of Amherst must sign off that they will have their share of the money needed for expansion. The Town is responsible for the same amount as awarded in the grants and any additional costs above the awarded grant amounts.

Mr. Voelkl announced that Supervisor Kulpa's architectural firm is donating the expansion plans for free. Mr. Voelkl mentioned that Senator Ranzenhofer has secured a $400,000.00 grant for the infield area between the Senior Center and Audubon Library. Mr. Voelkl offered to present the plans to the Central Library Board. Ms. Butler-Smith offered to do the required paperwork. No date set at this time.
