

LIBRARY 2024

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR

BUFFALO
ERIE COUNTY
PUBLIC LIBRARY

Profoundly
PUBLIC.

In 2024, more than 411,000 people in Erie County carried a library card—a simple act that reflects deep trust in a shared civic institution. Across every branch, patrons borrowed over 7.2 million books, digital materials, and resources, while 2.3 million visits filled our libraries with learning, creativity, and connection.

Last year's visits reflect the equivalent of every resident visiting the Library more than twice. On the average, library cardholders each checked out 17 items – a reminder of the breadth of our collection, and how deeply this institution is woven into daily life.

These numbers underscore the vital role public libraries continue to play. Even as libraries across the country face growing pressures—from funding debates to challenges to intellectual freedom—our community's commitment has remained strong.

With steady taxpayer support, donations from individuals, businesses, and foundations; we strengthened our collections, continued enriching public programs, and invested directly in staff training, equipment, and library spaces that serve all who walk through our doors.

Across the country, more than 2,452 unique book titles were challenged last year (ALA, 2024), marking one of the most significant threats to public libraries in generations. Yet here, the mission endures: open access, free inquiry, and the right to read remain at the core of who we are.

In 2024, we also celebrated 60 years since the reconstruction and dedication of the Central Library. This downtown landmark was built to house the merged book and rare collections of the Buffalo Public, Erie County Public, and Grosvenor libraries – which together began operating as the Buffalo & Erie County Public Library. As the oldest cultural institution in Buffalo, we have withstood challenges in many forms. For nearly 200 years, we have continued to serve the literacy needs with open doors in this community.

We commit to that service, today and tomorrow.

Thank you for your trust, your partnership, and your belief in the power of public libraries. Together, we sustain one of this region's most enduring public goods.
