CLARENCE PIONEERS OF THE REVOLUTION

Call 716-741-2650 to register beginning September 25

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 9, 2025 AT 7:00 PM
CLARENCE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Join Town Historian Joe McGreevy as he discusses the early pioneers of Clarence and their connections to the American Revolutionary War, highlighting several prominent soldiers who are buried in the Town of Clarence. Early settlement patterns, connections to the war and impacts on the community will all be investigated. The topic was chosen to kick off the 250th birthday of the signing of the Declaration of Independence in 2026.

Joe McGreevy: The Clarence Town Historian who teaches History at Clarence High School and is a lifelong resident of the town. His previous career as an archaeologist allowed him to excavate many prehistoric and historic archaeological sites in Clarence and throughout Western New York. He has a passion for learning and educating the community of its rich history.
