

Clarence Public Library Meeting Room Policy-DRAFT

Purpose of the Meeting Room

~~The meeting rooms at the Clarence Public Library are primarily for library related functions such as meetings of the Library Board of Trustees, library committee meetings, interlibrary meetings, library planning meetings, library workshops, and programs conducted or sponsored by the library.~~

The meeting rooms at the Clarence Public Library are intended for programs and activities conducted or sponsored by the Clarence Public Library. Secondly, the meeting rooms serve as a host location for community informational services and for programs or meetings of organizations engaged in educational, cultural, intellectual or charitable activities of interest and/or benefit to the community. These events must be nonpartisan and nonsectarian. Meetings must be conducted in the absence of affiliation or bias towards a particular political group or religious ideology. This includes, but is not limited to, political campaigns, political candidate meet and greets, and services of worship. Furthermore, the meeting rooms are not to be used for profit making or private events.

*Programs that are planned by the library or the library system take precedence over meetings of the outside groups. The library reserves the right to preempt the use of the meeting space for library purposes upon two (2) weeks' notice to the organization which had requested that space.

~~Library meeting rooms are intended:- (Redundant)~~

- ~~1. For activities conducted or sponsored by the Clarence Public Library and,~~
- ~~2. For organizations engaged in educational, cultural, intellectual or charitable activities of interest and/or benefit to the community.~~
- ~~3. For fundraising to benefit the library and/or for events sponsored by the Friends of the Clarence Public Library or other library related groups. The sale of books, CDs, DVDs, and other items by authors or artists is allowed as part of a library program. Permission to use a meeting room does not constitute an endorsement by the library of a program or point of view expressed. (See #3 under Meeting Room Rules for Use).~~

~~Secondarily, the meeting rooms serve as a host location for community informational services and for programs or meetings of established or recognized groups and associations whose purposes are educational, cultural, civic or of general community interest. These events must be nonpartisan and nonsectarian. Furthermore, the meeting room is not to be used for profit making organizations, partisan political activities or private events.~~

*If there is any question concerning the eligibility of the group to use the meeting room, the matter will be placed before the Board of Trustees, which has the authority to make all policy decisions.

Reserving the Meeting Room

Formal application for the use of a meeting room is made with the library director or a designated member of the staff. An individual responsible for the meeting must complete and sign an application form. An application must be on file for all meeting room uses. A new application must be submitted each year, or when a different person assumes responsibility for the group.

No reservation is final until a fully completed and signed application is on file. Any change of meeting dates must be approved by the Library Director or a designated member of the staff and the Library must be given advance notice of any cancellations or any changes in set up or other requirements.

Rooms will be assigned on a first come first serve basis, based upon the group's size, requirements, and meeting availability. Room assignments are subject to change. In fairness to the many groups requesting use of the meeting rooms, reservations will not be taken more than three (3) months in advance and reservations may be limited in frequency and time range of usage.

Meeting Room Rules of Use

1. All meetings must be open to the public.
2. No admission fee or required donation shall be charged.

Neither the name nor the address of the library may be used as the official address or the headquarters of an organization. No deliveries are to be made unless someone is present to accept them.
16. The following disclaimer must be included in all publicity materials: The views expressed are solely those of the author/speaker/presenter and do not necessarily reflect the views of, and should not be attributed to the Clarence Public Library.
17. A copy of all publicity materials must be submitted to the Library together with the Clarence Public Library Meeting Room Application. It is understood that deviation from the materials submitted with the Application could warrant the meeting to be canceled by Library personnel.
18. The Clarence library does not discriminate on the basis of disability in any of its programs and services. It is the responsibility of the organization using the meeting room to provide reasonable accommodations for person with disabilities (e.g. assistive listening devices, interpreters, etc., when and if possible) as required by the Americans with Disabilities Act.
19. Library personnel must have free access to the meeting rooms at all times. The library retains the right to monitor, including video monitor, all meetings conducted on the premises to ensure compliance with its regulations.
20. Violation of any of the Library's rules shall be grounds for denial of future use of meeting space. If new information becomes available that any meeting is in conflict with the above regulations or the Clarence Public Library's Rules of Conduct, permission to meet may be rescinded by the Library Director and the application returned to the individual making the application.
- ~~21. Meeting rooms are video monitored for everyone's safety and protection.(see #19)~~
- ~~22. Attendees must follow all health and safety protocols in place at the time of the event.~~
- ~~23. Room capacity is subject to change based on health and safety requirements and at the discretion of the Director. Room capacity limits are pursuant to Fire Code, but is subject to change based on health and safety requirements.~~

By signing the application for use of the meeting room you agree to abide by all library policies, including the Clarence library's Rules of Conduct. Failure to comply with this agreement, may result in the suspension of your group's privilege
