

CLARENCE PUBLIC LIBRARY PRESENTS

A STUDY IN SHERLOCK

MONDAY, MARCH 2, 2026 AT 6:30 PM

For March's installment of A Study in Sherlock we will be discussing The Adventure the Three Students, which is one of thirteen short stories collected in The Return of Sherlock Holmes (1905) It was first published in The Strand Magazine in June 1904 (U.K.) and in Collier's (U.S.) in September 1904. In the story, a tutor's office is entered, and proofs for a major scholarship exam are copied. The tutor, Hilton Soames, brings the case to Holmes, who must identify the cheater among three candidates.

Following our discussion, we will be watching Part II of Lucy Worsley's documentary Killing Sherlock (BBC).
