A Study in Sherlock

Monday, January 8, 2024 at 6:30 pm

Ring in the New Year with Sherlock Holmes! For our first program of the year, we will be discussing the short story The Man with the Twisted Lip, which is the sixth of the twelve stories in The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes. The story was first published in The Strand Magazine in December 1891. We will follow our discussion with a screening of the 1986 Granada Television adaption of the story starring Jeremy Brett.

In February, we be reading and discussing The Adventure of Wisteria Lodge. One of eight stories in the volume His Last Bow, this is a two-part story consisting of “The Singular Experience of Mr. John Scott Eccles” and “The Tiger of San Pedro.” It was originally published in The Strand Magazine in 1908. We will also viewed the Granada TV adaption of this story.
