

Nan Hoffman Joe Tumino

SINGING OUR HISTORY
(AMERICA 250 PROGRAM)

MONDAY, AUGUST 3 AT 6:30 PM

American history comes alive through folksong as Nan Hoffman and Joe Tumino present traditional and contemporary songs that tell of the people and events that shaped our country, and the diverse ethnic groups that weave the tapestry of our culture. Native Americans and early settlers, the Revolution and the Constitution, the Underground Railroad and the Civil War, the Erie Canal and westward expansion, and immigration are among topics that will be explored.

Using a variety of instruments and songs that invite audience participation, this musical presentation is fun and informative and geared for all age groups. Registration begins July 20.
