The Friends support the Clarence Public Library by helping to:

- ◆ Sponsor quality programs and events for all ages.
- ◆ Purchase supplies, equipment and furniture such as book shelving, display units, book carts, tables, chairs for patrons, and much more.
- ◆ Sponsor the annual Battle of the Books program and all summer reading program materials and supplies
- ◆ Maintain and staff the Friends Place Bookstore, which features a large variety of affordable, gently-used books.

The Friends of the Clarence Public Library's annual and ongoing fundraisers such as its spring and fall book sales, candy bar sales and holiday basket raffle help provide the library with the necessary resources so it may continue to offer outstanding service to the community.

The Friends have provided:

- ◆ Flat Screen TV/DVD-Blu-Ray player for the meeting room
- ◆ P.A. system
- ◆ Bicycles for the annual bike raffle
- ◆ Upgraded security cameras
- ◆ DVD/CD cleaning machine
- ◆ Children's programming materials
- ◆ Display stands for the library
- ◆ Custom display case for exhibits
- ◆ Storage shed for donated books
- ◆ Digital projector for the meeting room
- ◆ Funding for most of the programs held at the Clarence Public Library

Over the past year, the Clarence Public Library has had a over 550 programs with an attendance of 11,397 people!
