ANNUAL BOOK SALE AT ELAINE M. PANTY BRANCH LIBRARY POSTPONED

Due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic and measures of social distancing that remain in place, the Elaine M. Panty Branch Library, formerly known as the Riverside Branch Library located at 820 Tonawanda St., Buffalo, will not hold its annual summer used book sale at this time.

A rescheduled date for the book sale will be announced in the future.

The Elaine M. Panty Branch Library, and all other libraries located in the City of Buffalo, are now open to the public, with limited hours and services. Library patrons must wear a face covering and practice social distancing. Public computers, WiFi, books, CDs, DVDs, magazines and more are available. Those who live, work, or go to school in Erie County can get a free library card, which can also be used for downloadable books and music.

Library hours and services may be limited, so patrons are encouraged to stay updated with the latest library news and events by visiting www.BuffaloLib.org or the Library's Facebook page. The Elaine M. Panty Branch Library can also be reached by phone at 716-875-0562.
