

For Immediate Release: October 14, 2021
Information: Joy Testa Cinquino, Library System Assistant Deputy Director, 716-858-7182, testaj@buffalolib.org

BUILDING BRIDGES BETWEEN CULTURES ...WITH BOOKS

Chinese Club of Western New York Donates Books to Buffalo & Erie County Public Libraries

CAMERAS/MEDIA INVITED

WHEN: Saturday, October 16, 2021 @ 2 p.m.

WHERE: Clarence Public Library, Three Town Place, Clarence

WHAT: Members of the Chinese Club of Western New York will join the Buffalo & Erie County Public Library System for a special ceremony recognizing the club's recent donation of more than 100 Chinese language and culture books for the public to borrow through libraries.

Free and open to the public, the program will also feature a bilingual reading of the delightful children's book A Big Mooncake for Little Star by Grace Lin in Chinese and in English. Ceremony attendees will also learn to make a traditional paper lantern craft in celebration of the Mid-Autumn Festival.

Cameras are welcome and the media is encouraged to attend.

Face coverings are required to be worn by all in the Library.

###
