

Lancaster Public Library won the 2021 Battle of the Books teen reading competition, which was presented virtually for the first time!! This year, 13 teams from 10 different Buffalo & Erie County Public Libraries competed in the teen reading trivia challenge. The Runner-up team was also from Lancaster Public Library.

The scores were announced on the Central Library Facebook page and can be viewed here: <https://fb.watch/7gbjpMql-7/>.

Great job to all of the Battle of the Books teams from the following libraries:

- Amherst Public Libraries
- Boston Free Library
- Central Library
- Clarence Public Library
- Elma Public Library
- Grand Island Memorial Library
- Lancaster Public Library
- Newstead Public Library
- North Park Branch Library
- Orchard Park Public Library

Here is the lists of team winners for from Lancaster Public Library:
Head Coach – Alyssa Kornacki

Lancaster Team 2: (WINNER!)

- Seth Seaver
- Carrie Kornacki
- Zachary Paolini
- Nella Maynard
- Stephanie Couchman
- Emma DeMarzio

Lancaster Team 1: (runner-up)

- Ellen Maglich
- Tabitha Lewis
- Taylor Goodyear
- Ben Zuccaro
- Alex Dorr
- Caroline Washburn

This year's book title was The Last Dragonslayer by Jasper Fforde.
Special thanks to our Manager of Children's Services & Outreach Librarian Kristi Dougherty and her outstanding team for coordinating this year's Battle of the Books!

2021 Battle of the Books—here are some of the teams

Clarence Public Library

Elma Public Library

Elma

Elma

Elma

Elma

Newstead Public Library

Newstead

Amherst Public Library

