Near v. Minnesota: Where Freedom of the Press Really Started in the U.S.

Thursday, July 17

2:00 p.m.

Teens & Adults, 12+

Registration is Required

Freedom of speech and the press started with the adoption of the U.S. Bill of Rights in 1791, but its enforcement really began in 1931 when the Supreme Court made a decision in a case titled Near v. Minnesota. This was a pivotal moment for American jurisprudence and its story is one that could only happen here.

This talk will be led by Judi Geer, resident of Western New York, and a retired educator.

Sponsored by the Friends of the Aurora Town Public Library
