

Pauline Chow, Local Author

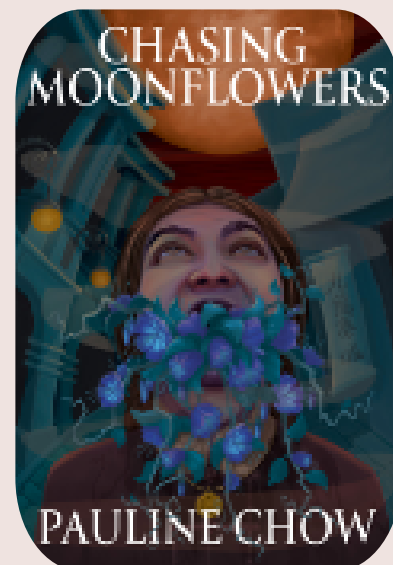

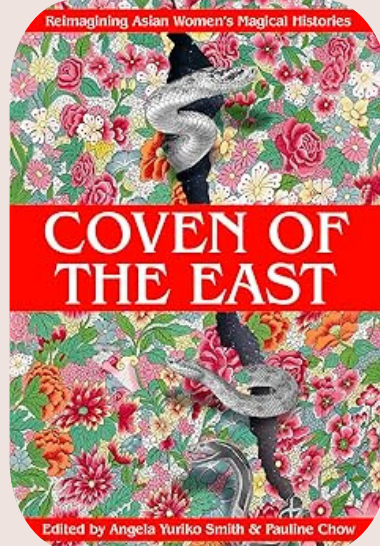

Writing the Gothic Stories We Carry

Tuesday, October 21 @ 6:30 p.m.

Teens & Adults, 15+, No Writing Experience Needed

Join local author, Pauline Chow, for an evening of storytelling and creative exploration. She will read from Chasing Moonflowers (Kirkus Starred Review) and an anthology called Coven of the East, followed by a discussion about writing through ancestral memory, family lore, and gothic themes.

*A book signing will follow the presentation.
10% of the proceeds from the book sales will benefit the Aurora Town Public Library.*

Registration is Required

Pauline Chow is a writer, coach, and ancestral magic practitioner, crafting alternative histories and optimistic futures. She is a Pushcart Prize nominated author with words in Cosmic Monthly Horror, Space and Time Magazine, Apocalypse Confidential, and more. Not your average data scientist, she once sued slumlords and advocated for affordable housing in Southern California. Now, she lives in the woods and is planning her next trip to a historical (hopefully haunted) hotel.

INDIVIDUALS IN NEED OF AN ACCOMMODATION MAY CONTACT THE ADA COORDINATOR AT ACCESS@BUFFALOLIB.ORG WITHIN SEVEN DAYS OF THE PROGRAM.
