

Friends of Eden Library proudly present

An Evening With Jackie Albarella

Author of “Sons and Their Mothers”

Jackie Albarella is an accomplished and award-winning photographer, author, garden expert and multi-platform storyteller, as well as a member of the Buffalo Broadcasters Hall of Fame. Join her as she reads from and discusses her latest book, celebrating the special bonds shared by sons and their mothers.

Limited copies of the book will be available for purchase and signing.

The library will be open special hours—until 8 p.m.—during this event.
