Thursday, May 8, 2025 @ 2:00 PM Climate Action, Sustainability, and You!

Erie County has been working for years to reduce climate pollution through climate action programs with goals of creating a more sustainable Western New York. Learn about what climate action and sustainability mean, how that makes a difference, and what individual actions you can do to reduce climate pollution. By making conscious choices in your daily life, you can inspire others to do the same!

Thursday, May 15, 2025 @ 2:00 PM My Unlikely Career in Buffalo Radio

Hired by the legendary Irv Weinstein in 1961, John Zack has worked alongside many of the giants in the industry. After nearly three decades at the iconic WKBW radio, John's success leveled off during a brief stint at WGR. Awaiting him was another opportunity that would last nearly two more decades: co-host of the WBEN Morning Show. Some surprises here to entertain you!

Tuesday, May 20, 2025 @ 1:30 PM Wonderful Words of Shakespeare

The Oxford English Dictionary lists more than 1,700 words which appear for the first time in Shakespeare's writings. He was the first person we know of to use these words in print. However, there are as many as 400 words which Shakespeare may have invented himself. Whether combining two words that already existed to make something new or by taking common words and changing the parts of speech, there are so many words in the English Language made popular by Shakespeare. We'll explore some of his words and work together to create a poem or sonnet with them.
