

2018 was a year packed full of programs at the Elma Public Library. We saw continued success with our Book and Cookbook Clubs, as well as with our monthly teen programs and the annual Iroquois Art Show. We also started several new children's programs this year, including Paws 4 Love, the Stuffed Animal Sleepover and an Easter Egg Hunt. Not to let the kids have all of the fun, we also partnered with Erie County Senior Services as a host location for their University Express classes and the Elma Historical Society's Frank Maciejewski gave a remarkable discussion on the history of the Town of Elma. Altogether, our program attendance rose over 20% this year and we invite the entire community to continue stopping by and to keep an eye on our event calendar for more exciting offerings.
