Grand Island Memorial Library

Gift Policy

The Grand Island Memorial Library values its donors and will accept monetary gifts and donations of library materials in good condition under the following conditions.

1. Gift materials will be judged by the same materials selection standards that apply to purchased materials. (See Materials Selection Policy).

2. The Library makes every effort to honor the wishes of the donors. Gifts on which the donor places restrictions or special conditions will be allowed only if those restrictions or conditions are accepted by the Board of Trustees or its designee.

3. Monetary gifts will be accepted for purchase of materials and/or equipment. Funds will be subject to the Material Selection Policy of the Grand Island Memorial Library.

4. All gifts (designated and undesignated) are subject to the terms of this policy. Undesignated gifts will be utilized at the discretion of the Library Trustees or their designees in accordance with this policy.

5. Gift materials (books, magazines, tapes, etc.) will be accepted with the understanding that they may be added to the collection, sold, given to other libraries, or discarded.

6. Gift items will be formally acknowledged, if the donor wishes. Neither the Grand Island Memorial Library staff nor the Trustees will estimate the value of the gift donations. The responsibility for this process lies with the donor.

7. Personal property, art objects, portraits, antiques, and other museum objects will be accepted only on the condition that they may be sold, given away, or discarded at the discretion of the Library Trustees and the Library Director.

This policy is determined by the Library Board of Trustees and is subject to periodic review and/or revision at the discretion of the Board. Appeals may be submitted to the Board in writing.
