

Director's Report
Hamburg Public Library Board of Trustees Meeting
Wednesday, July 23 @ 6:00 PM
To be held at the Hamburg Public Library

Blood Drives

Blood drives by the American Red Cross were held at the Hamburg Library in May. Lake Shore's drive was relocated to VFW Post #1419 due to the scheduled parking lot reconstruction which actually took place the following week. All time slots continue to be filled at both locations.

Practicum Student

Samantha Kaufman, a graduate student pursuing her Master in Library Science at the University at Buffalo, is doing a 120 hour practicum at the Hamburg Library during the summer. She is gaining valuable experience in a multitude of areas including collection development and public service. She will be with the library until the middle of August.

Scavenger Hunts

Scavenger hunts were held at both libraries during May and June.

Hamburg Library

May's Scavenger Hunt theme was "Space" with 494 participating. In June "Bluey" was the theme with 639 patrons participating.

Lake Shore Library

May featured a "Wicked" scavenger hunt to coincide with the Mother's Day "Wicked Tea". 112 children received lollipops, rainbow skittles, wands, and buttons from Dorothy's basket as prizes. 16 children searched for a real pair of little ruby red slippers hidden in the children's area.

June featured a "Wild Robot" scavenger hunt to celebrate the book series and release of the movie. The theme tied in with "Father's Day Tinker with Your Tots" family fun. 100 children received robot foamy stickers, buttons, notepads, and pencils amongst a tin bucket of nuts and bolts for prizes! 6 children searched for a giant egg (from the movie) hidden in the children's area.

Therapy Dogs

Dr. Lisa Ippolito, the owner of Phoebe, the Hamburg Library's former therapy dog, wrote a book entitled, The Adventures of Phoebe the Reading Dog detailing her time at the Hamburg Public Library! The book is dedicated to the staff. Lisa dropped by with several copies, including a signed copy. She will be back with Phoebe in September for an author visit.

Hamburg Library

The Hamburg Library had the pleasure of two therapy dog visits! Tucker took over for Kruz in July so he could take some well-deserved time off.

Read into Kruz

On June 14, Kruz the therapy dog visited the library with 11 children and adults reading and spending time with him.

Reading with Tucker

On July 12, Tucker the therapy dog visited with 27 children and adults reading and spending time with him.

Lake Shore Library

Paddy the Reading Dog

Paddington, a family favorite, visited the library on June 7, 21, and July 5 with 24, 22, and 5 children and adults reading to Paddy each of those visits.

Pet Pantry

On July 10, this writer met with Amelia Errington from Girl Scout Troop #30677 to discuss installing a pet pantry at the Hamburg Library for her Silver Award. It will be placed along the sidewalk near the seed share. Amelia is partnering with the SPCA Serving Erie County. The pantry will be maintained by the troop. A dedication ceremony will take place on August 25 at 3pm.

Hamburg Garden Walk

The Hamburg Public Library participated in the Hamburg Garden Walk held on July 12 and 13. Visitors experienced all the work the Hamburg Garden Club does! A sign-in book was available in the Reading Garden for visitors to make comments.

Summer Programming

Summer programming is in full swing at both libraries which began with a summer reading kickoff on June 28 at the Hamburg Library. This year's reading theme is "Color Your World". Programming runs until August 16. Please see below:

Hamburg Library

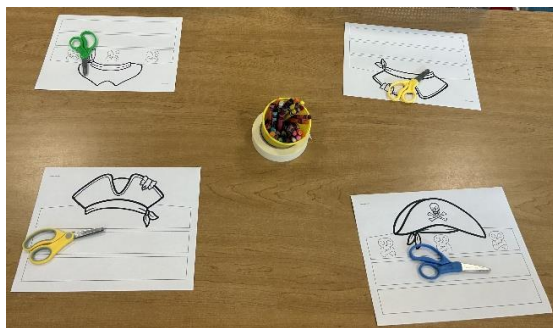

Programs offered this month include:

LEGO Club

Senior Pages Lauren and Emily coordinated LEGO Club, which is held the 1st Saturday and 2nd Wednesday of each month for children ages 6 to 11. Children use their imagination to make wonderful creations. Afterwards, they are displayed in the Kids Space area. Hamburg YES (Youth Engaged Services) volunteers assist with this program. In June there were 47 participants and in July there were 39 participants.

Story Time

Story Times are held twice a day, every Wednesday, for seven weeks beginning on June 18 and continuing through the end of July. Each session consists of a welcome song and greeting, three stories relating to a theme, songs with movements and flannel boards for children's engagement, and a related craft at the end. This program is geared towards children 2-5 years old. Story time had 128 attendees in June and 197 as of July 16.

Pirate Hat Craft

Pirate Mast

"Walk the Plank"

Baby Bounce

In June and July, Librarian Branch Manager Nicole held lapsit story time for children ages 0 to 2. The program is held on the 2nd and 4th Monday of each month. In June there were 106 attendees.

Button Day

Button day is held on the 1st and 3rd Thursdays of each month. Supplies are placed on a table for participants. After completing their design, participants come to the public service desk to get their button made. During the months of June and July there were 12 and 6 participants respectively.

Game Night

The library hosts Game Night every 2nd Thursday of each month. In June there were 4 who participated and in July there were 11 who joined in on the fun!

Teen Dungeons and Dragons Club

Librarian Trainee Sarah hosted the program Teen Dungeons and Dragons Club on May 24 and June 28, for teens ages 13-17. On May 24 there were 6 teens and 1 adult in attendance, and on June 28 there were 9 teens and 1 adult in attendance. In Teen D&D Club, the group plays the tabletop role playing game Dungeons and Dragons, journeying on a campaign together. The group oriented game improves social-emotional learning skills, fostering a collaborative environment focused on teamwork, critical thinking, and problem-solving. The game also strengthens communication, storytelling, and creative thinking skills, as well as improving math and reading skills. The Teen D&D Club is made possible by the help of a volunteer who leads the campaign. The D&D Club will continue to meet monthly, on the 4th Saturday of every month.

Camp Create

Librarian Jordan hosted Camp Create, a monthly craft program for kids ages 6-12, on June 26 from 6-7pm. This program had 16 attendees who created their own fairy doors on wood slices, decorated with paint, markers, small stones, beads, sequins, and other bits of ephemera. Practicum Student Sam made fairy themed buttons for the children after the craft. Themed coloring pages were also provided for the children to work on during the program and to take home after.

Colorful Tuesdays

Librarian Trainee Sarah hosted Colorful Tuesday from 5-7pm on Tuesday, July 1 with 15 adults and 15 children in attendance, for a total of 30 attendees. Colorful Tuesday is a passive program that provides coloring books, coloring pages and coloring supplies for adults and children to enjoy while they are in the library.

Pokémon Club

Librarian Trainee Sarah hosted the program Pokémon Club for children ages 6-12, on June 10 and July 8 from 4-6pm. On June 10, there were 20 children and 8 adults in attendance. On July 8 there were 30 children and 11 adults in attendance. Children learned how to play the Pokémon Trading Card Game, which teaches them strategy, math, and improves reading comprehension. One teen and one adult from the community volunteered to help the children learn the game, and will continue to volunteer for future meetings of the club. Children were also able to do Pokémon themed crafts, such as create your own Poke ball and Pokémon headbands.

Director's Book Club

Book Club is held the 3rd Friday of the month. June's title was No Country for Old Men by Cormac McCarthy with 10 members in attendance. July's title was The Light Between Oceans by M.L. Stedman with 17 in attendance. Discussions are always lively and stimulating.

Cookbook Club

Librarian Nicole hosted the monthly Cookbook Club on June 18 from 6-7pm. Participants chose a recipe from the cookbook of the month and brought it to share. June's theme was vibrant recipes using fresh ingredients, featuring the cookbook The Pretty Dish by Jessica Merchant, with 8 adults in attendance. Librarian Karen hosted on July 16 with 6 participants. July's recipes were taken from The Pepper Thai Cookbook by Pepper Teigen.

LGBTQ+ Pride Foundations

The Pride Center of WNY presented the course LGBTQ+ Pride Foundations on Monday, June 25 with 3 in attendance. This training provided attendees with in-depth foundational knowledge on LGBTQ+ communities, including an overview of terminology, sociopolitical and historical context, legal protections & recognition, and actionable steps for creating a safer and more satisfying community for LGBTQ+ individuals to live in.

The Rainbow Collective Story

Local nonprofit, Rainbow Collective of WNY presented The Rainbow Collective story on Monday June 30 with 6 in attendance. A panel discussion was had which covered the origin of the organization, what they offer the community, and the organizations missions & goals. It also addressed why they felt it was important to create an LGBTQIA+ 501C3 in the Southtowns.

Summer Reading Kick Off

On June 28, Librarian Jordan hosted the Summer Reading Kick Off at the Hamburg Library. With the help of staff, practicum student Sam, and four volunteers from the YES Group, the library hosted several stations for families to sign up for summer reading, participate in rock painting, make your own activity books, and play outdoor games. In total, there were 71 participants who joined us to kick off the summer!

Summer Concert

On July 2, Dick O'Dell and 23 Skidoo performed on the library's front lawn. Attendees were entertained with music from several eras with 30 in attendance.

The Magic of Color

On July 7, performer Cris Johnson presented the Magic of Color in an engaging, family-friendly program. There were 42 kids and 20 adults in attendance, for a total of 62. The Magic of Color blended magic tricks with fun, interactive storytelling, and exploring the world of colors. The program was designed to support library summer reading themes, highlighting how colors influence our moods, creativity, and imagination. Throughout the show, Cris used visual illusions, audience participation, and humorous routines to reinforce positive messages about reading, self-expression, and the importance of diversity. The performance also featured a collection of books that related to the theme for the audience to check out after the show.

Teen Art Night

Librarian Jordan hosted a teen art night on Monday July 14. With yarn donated from the "Knitalongers", Hamburg Library's Knitting group, and driftwood collected by Library Clerk Eileen, the teens were able to create unique yarn wall hangings. 10 teens attended this art program.

Movement at the Library

On July 18, Elements Dance Studio visited and provided an introduction to moving your body with hip hop and how reading books exercises your mind! Two sessions were held, one for ages 3-6 and one for ages 7+. There were 28 and 10 participants in each session.

Class Visits

Charlotte Ave Class Visit

On June 3 three Kindergarten classes visited the Hamburg Public Library. Librarian Branch Manager Nicole and Librarian Jordan gave them a tour of the library, read stories, and an "Imagine Your Own Library Craft"! There were 48 children and adults in attendance.

Kid Librarian

Librarian Trainee Sarah and Librarians Jordan and Nicole hosted four Kid Librarians, one on June 17, June 28, July 2, and July 7. Kid Librarians were Liv Kresconko, Ramona Burns, Declan Manspeaker and William Veazie. The Kid Librarians worked with Librarian Trainee Sarah to curate a display of a topic of their choice to feature in the Kid's Space area. Liv and Declan created displays featuring their "Favorites," Ramona did "Baby-Sitters Club and Raina Telgemeir Books," and William created a "Sports" display. Each Kid Librarian created a poster to display with their collection using the program Canva. The Kid Librarian program helps children to feel a sense of ownership in the library and the Kid's Space area. Afterwards, they receive a certificate of accomplishment.

Book Displays

Pride Month

Librarian Branch Manager Nicole created a display in the children's and teen area for Pride Month celebrated in June. In the teen area, pamphlets and educational materials were provided by Rainbow Collective of WNY, WNY Pride Center, and Crisis Services of Erie County. Fiction and Nonfiction books about corresponding topics were also put on display.

Juneteenth

Practicum Student Samantha created displays in the adult and children's area to celebrate the holiday of Juneteenth.

Summer Reading

At the end of June, Librarian Jordan put up the Color Our World display on the glass case near the front entrance. This display showcases our Summer Reading Program and theme, as well as some programs, bookmarks and stickers, and a raffle for those who complete summer reading logs. Senior Page Lauren also created a similar display in the glass display downstairs for maximum advertisement. These displays will remain up through August 15, the last day of Summer Reading.

Practicum Student Samantha created displays in the adult new book area for Summerween which included spooky themed books and “Where do you come from display?” which is comprised of books to help research your personal ancestry and roots.

A collection of seven children's books about space, including 'The Illustrated Encyclopedia of Space', 'Space Exploration Day', 'John Glenn', 'The Solar System', and 'Space 101', displayed on a table.

Seed Share

The Hamburg Library Seed Share has continued to receive numerous donations from community members. From these donations, Librarian Jordan and Senior Page Emily have processed the seeds into smaller envelopes with labels and made them available to the public with the outdoor seed library. In total, the seed share has been stocked with 1,541 seed packets and counting in 2025.

Lake Shore Library

Programs offered this month include:

StoryTime ShookUp!

Storytime ShookUp was held with Miss Laurie on June 5, and 12 at 10:00am. Children ages 2-5 focused on literacy, listening, and socialization. On June 5, the children read Impatient Butterfly and made butterfly crafts with 46 attending. On June 12, the children read With Dad, It's Like That and made homemade Father's Day cards with 46 attending.

Baby Bounce

Baby Bounce with Miss Laurie was held on Tuesday, June 3 and 10 at 10:00am. Children ages 6 months–2 years engaged in music, play, and board books. On June 3 Miss Laurie read Where is Baby's Belly Button with 28 attending. On June 10, Miss Laurie read From Head to Toe with 22 attending.

LEGO Club

LEGO Club was held on the 4th Saturday of the month for children ages 6-11. Children use their imaginations to make wonderful creations! After completion, they are displayed in the children's area. There were 5 children each who participated in May and June.

Cookbook Club

Cookbook Club, hosted by Library Associate Laurie was held on June 9 with 12 participants. Laurie selected the book, Half-Baked Harvest: Super Simple by Tieghan Gerard. On July 16, the book selected was The Best Mexican Recipes by America's Test Kitchen. The club enjoyed festivities outside with 12 attending.

Button Making

Button day is held on the 1st and 3rd Saturdays of each month. Supplies are placed on a table for participants with help from the staff. A total of 87 participants made Robot Rave and Eric Carle buttons.

Adult Craft Night

Adult Craft Night was held on June 16 with 8 participants. Participants created a Fluttering Butterfly Portrait.

Adult Book Club

Library Associate Laurie facilitated the discussion for the monthly Book Club on May 28 and June 30. In May, the group discussed People We Meet on Vacation by Emily Henry, with 7 attendees. Tropical fruit refreshments were served.

In June, the group discussed Bad Monkey by Carl Hiaasen in anticipation of the now streaming Netflix series with 8 in attendance.

Newsletters are sent to participants providing background information, fun facts, and recommended reads.

Summer Reading Kickoff!

To kick off summer reading, 65 recipients received a gift bag with a starting summer reading log, lanyard, activity pamphlet, watercolor page, and special Eric Carle Outdoor Scavenger Sheet to be completed at home and returned for the opportunity to earn a special Eric Carle badge.

Magic Show and Balloon Workshop

On July 14, Magician Cris Johnson visited to perform magic and make balloons with 22 children and adults in attendance. Cris had lots of participation from the audience. Children and adults made balloon hats and animals. Afterwards, Cris received many positive comments from parents!

Movement and Dance

On July 16, the Lake Shore Library hosted the owner of Elements Dance Center, Charity Carrig, who presented two separate sessions of family friendly Hip Hop and Creative movements classes. The 1st session targeted children 3-6 years old with 4 in attendance. Unfortunately there were no participants for the 2nd session.

Class Visit

On July 17, 14 students from BrightPath visited the library. Miss Laurie read two stories and gave out stickers.

Book Displays

In June and July, Lake Shore honored our Veterans, Fathers, and Fourth of July. Library Associate Laurie created a Memorial Day theme in the display case, hung flag wreaths on both doors, showcased an "Honoring our Father's" Book Display, and personally brought and planted white and red geraniums with sweet potato vine for the outside doors. In July, the book display was replaced by Laurie with "Celebrating 200 Years of the Erie Canal” with accompanying guidebooks and maps from Canalside for the summer season.

PlayMore

The meeting room was available on Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 10am to 11am for playtime and Mommy-Meet Up when storytime is not in session. Toys and a train table are set out. It allows for moms to visit the library and socialize with 108 attending.

Children’s Craft and Interactive Stations

June brought “Tinker with Your Tots” to the children’s tables. Miss Laurie created a robot display featuring all robot books. The children’s tables offered families Robot and Father’s Day coloring, toy robot play, vintage wooden block building, and vintage tinker toy time. For Father’s Day, 75 “I love you a Bot, Daddy” cards were made with Father’s Day Buttons. Afterward, 100 tissue box robots were created at the crafting table.

A Summer Reading Kick Off event based on the theme, “Color Our World” was held in the children’s area in July.

The Lake Shore Library is featuring everything Eric Carle for the summer, including an Eric Carle book display created by Library Associate Laurie. The Children's area offered family fun with rainbow colored fidgets, pop-its, pillows, and puzzles. Also provided for the families were Eric Carle coloring and crafts.

Outreach

Hamburg Library

Summer Concert Series

On July 9, this writer tabled at the Village of Hamburg Summer Concert Series, a weekly event scheduled on Wednesday evenings starting at 7:00pm in Memorial Park. Performing was the Hamburg Village Band. This year's series runs from June 11 to August 13. The Hamburg Public Library is an annual sponsor. This writer promoted summer programming to 40 attendees.

Smarty Pants Day Care

Librarian Jordan visited Smarty Pants Day Care monthly on Thursdays in June and July to read stories to two classes per visit. On June 5, she read to 15 children in the Pre-K room, and 13 children in the Kinder-Ready room, for a total of 28 children. On July 10, Librarian Jordan read to 13 children in the Pre-K room and 13 children in the Kinder-Ready room for a total of 26 children.

Classroom Collections

Each month, Librarian Jordan curates a collection of picture books for two different child care centers. For the month of June, Churchill Child Center requested books about dads, summer activities, friends, bugs, and Flag Day. They borrowed 18 books total for this collection. This was the last request before their break for summer.

Smarty Pants Daycare also participates in the classroom collections program. Their books are dropped off with the class visit at the beginning of each month. For the June visit they requested books about opposites, circus, Father's Day, jungle, science, and camping borrowing 34 books. For July, they requested books about sports, flight, outer space, the zoo, and ocean life borrowing 35 books.

Lake Shore Library

BrightPath Daycare

On June 6, Miss Laurie visited BrightPath Daycare and read stories to 81 children aged 5 and up.

Respectfully submitted,
Brian Hoth, Director

Expenditures were fairly routine since the last board meeting. Program Supplies were purchased for the children's summer reading program and the summer programs for both libraries. The library received reimbursement from the Friends of the Library for Hamburg's new display unit for the Kid Librarian program in the children's area at Hamburg.

Note: $39,375.00 of the final balance is construction grant funds for the Lake Shore parking lot rehabilitation.

Proceeds from Book Sale, Candy Sale and mugs: 5/21/2025 – 7/14/2025 = $658.55
