

170 Pine St.
E. Aurora, NY 14052
716-652-2432

lyn@lessonsfromnature.biz
Lyn Chimera

Soil Is the Key Follow Up Information

Websites:

Cornell Cooperative Extension: erie.cornell.edu, 21 S. Grove, E. Aurora, 14052

Master Gardener Hotline (answer gardening questions, soil testing, plant, insect & disease ID)
email: mgerie@cornell.edu, Phone: (716)652-5400 x202 – M, W & F, 9-12

How to take a soil test: <http://erie.cce.cornell.edu/resources/how-to-obtain-a-soil-sample>

CCE for pH. For nutrient and heavy metal diagnosis: <https://dairyone.com/services/agronomy-services/soil-analysis/>

General soil info from Cornell with links to many soil related sites:
<http://cceschuyler.org/gardening/soils-climate>

Lessons from Nature, garden consulting. Home visits for answering questions, solving problems, plant, insect, and disease identification. Will help improve your gardening and save you time and money.

LFN also sends free monthly Garden Tips. If interested contact Lyn Chimera, 652-2432 or lyn@lessonsfromnature.biz

Bringing People and Nature Closer Together