THE GREAT (SCARY) OUTDOORS

BY BELLA

The Wilderness

by Steve McCarthy

Every day, the Vasylenko family goes outside, looking for an adventure. And just like every day, Oktober says home. He doesn't find adventures in the great outdoors, he finds them in books. He's very scared of a certain monster: the Wilderness. Which lives outside. When Oktober is brought along on an adventure, his parents tell him there's nothing to be scared of. When he gets lost, he meets his greatest fear: the Wilderness. Will he make it back home? Or will the Wilderness get him? You're going to have to read this book to find out!

What is a Solar Eclipse?

by Dana Meachen Rau

Have you ever wondered what a solar eclipse is or how it works? What about the history of a solar eclipse? In this book you'll learn all about solar eclipses, and it's a perfect book to read after our own solar eclipse happened on April 8th. You'll learn all the phases of the moon, the importance of wearing solar eclipse glasses to protect your eyes, and so much more!

BEAUTIFUL ON THE INSIDE

BY DELANEY

Pretty Ugly

by David Sedaris and Ian Falconer

No one has ever met an uglier monster than Anna Van Ogre. Anna will eat with her mouth full and stomp on the flowers. Her whole family is proud of her, until one day her face turns from ugly to a pretty rosy-cheeked face. While this sight horrifies her family, they support her and try to make her feel better, even while everyone outside of the house are horrified by her horrendously pretty face. But no matter her families support, Anna Van Ogre hates being pretty, until one day she realizes that the most important thing is the ugly inside of her. Only then does Anna finally become her ugliest self.

A "BIG" AWARD WINNER

BY DELANEY

Big

by Vashti Harrison

When you're a kid being big is good, but as you get older people stop admiring you for it and start to judge you for it. This beautifully written and illustrated book, about a girl who deal with the unkind words and biases of others, but who eventually can find the self-love she needs to like the way she is, even if others do not. This book is the kind of book both children and adults will love equally.

Winner of the Caldecott Medal! A Coretta Scott King Award Author and Illustrator Honor book, a National Book Award finalist, and a New York Times bestseller!

1,000 Amazing Weird Facts by Andrea Mills

Want to learn 1,000 of the wildest, weirdest facts? Did you know that a peacock spider's central eyes cover half of its head, how about that a butterfly's scales are no more than 0.1 mm in length? There's so much to learn about caves, animals, storms, deserts, insects and so much more in this book!

WAS IT AN ACCIDENT?

BY DELANEY

Oops by Julie Massy and Pascale Bonenfant

What happens when you squash a tube of toothpaste, what about when you flip your bowl of spaghetti? What happens when you shake your box of cereal or drop your mug of hot cocoa? Oops!

Below my feet, I felt the cold blades of grass.
I looked up at the sky,
clear and shiny like blue glass.

Flowers around me are beginning to bloom.
Birds above are singing their little tune.
The trees, which used to be bare, now have small buds of green.

Goodbye winter, cold and mean.

AT THE MALL

BY SIENNA

The One and Only Ivan
by Katherine Applegate

Ivan is a gorilla. He lives in a mall of sorts. There must be more to life than concrete walls and a waterfall painted on the wall, right? At least he has Stella, a sweet old elephant, and Bob, a feisty little stray dog. When something goes terribly wrong at the mall, something has to change. It's time to be a hero, and Ivan is up to the challenge.

OWOOOO!!! A HOWLING GOOD READ!

BY BELLA

Wild Wild Wolves
by Joyce Milton

When you think of a wild dog that howls, what animal do you think of? Well, as for me, I think of a wolf. This book is all about wolves. Why do wolves howl? What are different stories about wolves? Where do wolves live today? All those questions and more can be answered in this fact-filled read! Also in this book, it talks about the life cycle of a wolf, from when they are born, to when they are an adult wolf. I think you read this book to find out more about these smart and majestic animals.

READY, SET, SEARCH!

BY SIENNA

The Evolution of Calpurnia Tate

It's 1899 and Calpurnia Virginia Tate is not going to have a housewife life if she has anything to say about it. In her search to avoid housework, Callie Vee learns she has more in common with her grandfather than she thought. She loves the natural world that she lives in and soon she starts asking why? And how? It's a little rough, after all, it's not easy being a girl at the turn of the century.

MOODY MOVER

BY DELANEY

Cranky

by Phuc Tran and Pete Oswald

Sometimes we all feel cranky, including Cranky, and it doesn't help that everyone is asking him why he's upset, or trying to make him feel better. Cranky knows that his friends are only trying to help, but them trying to cheer him up only makes him feel even more cranky. But when Cranky's friends finally give him time to himself he can finally, feel a little less cranky. This is a great book, about big emotions, amazing friends and the importance of communication.

MONEY DOESN'T GROW ON TREES

BY DELANEY

I Am Money

by Julia Cook, Garrett Gunderson and Josh Cleland

I Am Money is an excellent book to start kids off on learning about personal finance, teaching how to earn money whether it is by mowing the lawn or making lemonade stands, the importance of saving, and not spending the money that they don't have. But also making sure to spend a little on themselves, their talents and the things they really want. And most importantly remembering to donate money.
