Such a Little Mouse by Alice Schertle

A mouse that has a whole house, that's something. Each year a mouse has to gather food for the winter each day from the start of spring to the start of winter. And each day he encounters something like one day he meets a toad that lives under a flower pot or a line of ants. And then finally it's winter he makes a loaf of acorn bread and a bowl of seed and watercress soup and then snuggles up in a little blanket and reads a book of mouse tales. And then sleeps.

SO DRAMATIC!

BY BELLA

When Alex gets worried, his fears become a llama. A DRAMA llama. But one day, it doesn't go away, it follows him. The more Alex worries, the bigger his llama gets! He tried to get rid of it, but it always comes back! One day, it follows him to school, and the llama eats books and chews his teacher's hair! How will Alex tame his drama llama?

THE ADVENTURE TO THE MICROWAVE

BY ELLA

Sophie was brave enough to jump off the bed and down the scary hall. She was brave enough to go to the couch, but the main trouble was jumping on the couch. Sophie tried jumping but she landed on her back. After walking down the scary hall she found out she mistakenly went into the bathroom instead! She tried getting out! When she finally got out of the bathroom she finally found the way to the couch. First, Sophie tried jumping on the couch and then she found a stool right by the couch and jumped onto the stool. Finally, she was on the couch. Sophie was cold on the couch so she tried getting a blanket. After she got a blanket she said it was still too cold. Then she had an idea! She thought "Didn't they once put me in the microwave?!" So, she pushed the stool up to the counter and grabbed the microwave handle. Next, she opened up the microwave and went in. She was stuck in the microwave and it turned on! Sophie was warm and quickly escaped when she was too warm. So finally she jumped out and on the couch and slept happily! The End. Meow.
