YOU HAVE TO READ THESE!

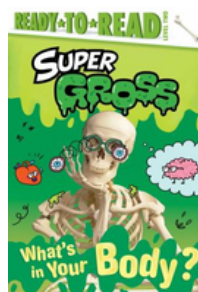

PIG the Rebel

by Aaron Blabey

This book was pretty good. It's about, you guessed it, Pig the Pug doing bad stuff. But his owner has had it. She sends Pig to obedience school, to hopefully teach him a thing or two. Pig is mixed in with other dogs who have a lot of issues. Some crazy, some hyper, some nuts. But then Pig had had enough. He escapes with the other mutts and actually makes it out. But he explodes and sheds all of his fur. But he learns something new. Be nice to others, and they will be nice to you.

JOIN THE CLUB!

BY MAXINE

The Baby-Sitters Club
by Ann M. Martin

This series was probably the best series I have ever read. It's about these four girls who create a club for babysitting. The first couple were good, but they honestly just keep getting better and better. Their names are Claudia Kishi (vice president), Kristy Thomas (founder and president), Mary Ann Spier (secretary), and Stacey McGill (treasurer). They sometimes have fights, arguments, and even threaten to quit! But in the end, they all realized that friendship was more important than fake-ship.

BY EVAN

Percy Jackson is about to be kicked out of boarding school...again. And that's the least of his troubles. Lately, mythological monsters and the gods of Mount Olympus seem to be walking straight out of the pages of Percy's Greek mythology textbook and into his life. And worse, he's angered a few of them. Zeus's master lightning bolt has been stolen, and Percy is the prime suspect. Now Percy and his friends have just ten days to find and return Zeus's stolen property and bring peace to a warring Mount Olympus.

A LAUGH OUT LOUD BOOK

BY MAXINE

by Raina Telgemeier

This book was so good. It's about a girl whose story takes us from middle school to high school, where she is dealing with a lot. Boys, fake friendships, even earthquakes! All the while having to put up with braces, mean siblings, a fussing mom, and toothaches. Raina soon ends up having to go to high school alone and friendless. Once she finally gets her braces off Raina feels like she can finally, well, smile.

Lou

by Breanna Carzoo

Picture yourself walking down the sidewalk. You pass a house, some grass, a tree--the usual. But what do you see next to those things, sitting innocuously along the road, a staple of our lives, and especially of the lives of dogs? That's right. The fire hydrant. Well, Breanna Carzoo follows the daily life of a certain red fire hydrant, Lou, who is tired of his job. Which is to get peed on by dogs. Unfortunately, he doesn't know how to be anything else, and he worries that he'll never get that chance. However, when Lou is just in time for a disaster that only he could prevent, his inner potential shines through. Lou by Breanna Carzoo is an adorable story of self-acceptance, told from an unlikely--and pretty funny--perspective.

THESE BOOTS ARE MADE FOR WATCHING!

BY GEORGE

Puss in Boots: The Last Wish is an absolutely incredible movie. The movie is full of incredible fight scenes and keeps the tension from start to end. Puss in Boots manages to be a charming but relatable protagonist as he loses almost all of his lives and he plans on using the wish to get his lives back and become everyone's "Favorite Fearless Hero!" again. Puss in Boots is joined by two companions, Kitty Softpaws and Perrito, who added a lot to the story and comedic value. All in all it's a 10/10 movie and I would recommend it for all ages.

This isn't out on DVD yet, but you can rent the first movie from the library! Use this QR code to get your copy today!
