

Director's Report for April 12th 2023

Day-To-Day Changes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Educator cards had some tweaking. It now only needs to be renewed yearly.
Internal Projects	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • On the March 24th O'Connell Came in and looked at the HVAC. • On April 3rd Chelsey was in the library to oversee the installing of the new Security System- installation has been completed.
System Meeting	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dordina Darien will be the liaison of Erie County Contract Libraries. Therefore, any issues where the county needs to be consulted will go to her office.
March Accomplishments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Iftar- 90 patrons gathered to learn about Ramadan and celebrate an early iftar. • Over 40 homeschoolers came to learn about Local History with guide Lynn Dziak. • New Story Times were added on Fridays and are experiencing a large number of participants. • Surveys conducted to see what adults want from library programs- stationed here, Senior Center and City Hall. • We finished "genre-fying" YA Fiction. An increase of circ has already been noted (4x the amount of last year).
Upcoming in April	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Book Mobile April 18th at 10:30 am- Kids can climb aboard the Book Mobile, check out books and learn about mobile libraries. • Earth Day Party April 22 at 11am – Kids party to celebrate the Earth while learning about recycling • Book Club April 26th at 11 am – The Storied Life of A. J. Fikry: A Novel by Gabrielle Zevin
Long-Range Plan Accomplishments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Goal #1 - Continue to partner with elected officials for sponsored events. • Goal #3 - Continue partnering with the Lackawanna Historical Association and the Friends of the Lackawanna Library group. • Goal #5 - Conduct community surveys to provide programs that our patrons are interested in.