Tuesday, June 28

6:30 - 7:30 p.m.

IRYNA (CHUTKO) COLVIN-SPENCER, is a retired business woman and paralegal whose avocation is to write books.

Hannia: Forgotten Holocaust Survivor is a labor of love about her late mother, who proved that she was a survivor, against all odds.

Iryna has previously written three children's books dedicated to family life, and service to others. Over the years, Iryna had dedicated herself to serving others in her capacity as a member of the Lancaster Lions Club, Depew-Lancaster Zonta Organization, The Depew Boys & Girls Club, The Lancaster Youth Bureau, and was the founder of the "Tri Community Girls Club", and briefly held office on the Depew Village Board. Her mother's dedication of serving others encouraged Iryna to do the same.
