How Speech Understanding Changes Across the Lifetime

Learn more about the ways that your ability to understand speech might change as you get older from this lecture by UB professor Chris Heffner. He will talk about changes in the ears and in the brain that might affect your ability to understand what others are saying as you grow older, and the latest research from his lab about these processes.

SPACE WILL BE LIMITED AND REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED—PLEASE CALL 716-674-2928 TO REGISTER